Ledger and Times File

Mrs. Robert Farris celebrated her 83rd birthday Sunday, April 21, and enjoyed the beautiful Easter dinner that was prepared for her.

W. N. Osburn, well-known young resident of Murray, and Richard Mason, veteran of the Navy, have become partners in the grocery and service station business, and are operating at the bend in South Fourth and Sycamore Streets. They are grandsons of L. Robertson, who has been in business with Mr. Osburn until this month when Mr. Mason bought his interest.

Everett Gibson Holland, age 60, died suddenly of a heart attack at his home on West Poplar Street, Saturday, April 20, at 12:50 p.m.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Gladys Hood Holland and one daughter, Mrs. William Streuli, Memphis. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Berry have purchased the residence on South Sixth and Poplar Streets from Guthrie Churchill. Mr. and Mrs. Churchill are building a home on North Seventh and Chestnut.

"Construction will begin on the new science and industrial arts building in about a year," Dr. Ralph H. Woods, President of Murray State College, announced today. "When completed, the new building will house the agriculture, home economics, biological science, physical science, and industrial arts departments," Dr. Woods added.

Total cost of the building will be $400,000.

The scripture from James 2:18-26 was read, by Mrs. Clifton Harrell followed with prayer by Mrs. Herbert Farmer.

"Winesap A' Daily Work" was the lesson presented with Mrs. Ona Whitnell as leader. Those taking part were Mrs. Wildy Ellis, Mrs. Ralph Robertson, and Mrs. Vernon Roberts. Mrs. Whitnell gave a summary of the lesson.

The minutes were read by Mrs. Clifton Harrell. Plans were made for the society to have a noon dinner at the Legion Hall in the near future.

The closing song was "Work for the Night Is Coming" followed by prayer by Mrs. Ellis.

Daily refreshments were served by the hostess.

Arrangements of spring flowers were used at vantage points in the house. A party plate was served by the hostess.

Mrs. K. T. Crawford's Oil Paintings And Home Department Members' Hobbie Shown

The Home Department of the Murray Woman's Club held an open meeting at the club house on Thursday, April 19, at three-fifteen o'clock in the afternoon.

Of special interest were the beautiful oil paintings of Mrs. K. T. Crawford. She has been studying and working on her paintings for about five years and had on display about twenty-five of her works.

Hobbies of the members were also on display. Among these were the old flat silver by Mrs. Kern, cutwork by Mrs. Humphreys Key, hooked rug by Miss Capple Beale, blue glass by Mrs. Garva Gattlin, and many others.

Special music was by Mrs. Bobbie Grogan, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Farmer. Her numbers were "The Swallows," "One Alone," and "Lover Where Can You Be."

Refreshments were served from the beautifully appointed tea table overlaid with a silver thread cloth and centered with a gorgeous arrangement of white stock and tulips. Mrs. R. H. Robbins, chairman of the department, presided at the tea service.

Out of town guests were Mrs. B. S. Enoch and Mrs. Percy M. Williams of Paris, Tenn.

Proceeding the open meeting the department held business meeting at which time Mrs. Burnett Waterfield read the slate of officers for the new club year.

Music Club Chorus And Mrs. Farrell Present Program

The Music Department of the Murray Woman's Club held an open meeting on Tuesday evening, April 17, at the Methodist Church. Mrs. C. C. Lowry, chairman of the department, welcomed the guests and Mrs. Joseph Darnall of the program committee presented Mrs. Richard Farrell, organist, assisted by the Music Club chorus in a program, "Music, The Gift of Religion."

Mrs. Farrell opened her program with two numbers from the Gothic Suite by Boellmann, the majestic "Choral-Introduction" and the animated "Priore a Notre Dame." The first part of the program ended with the much loved "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach.

The Music Club Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Howard Oula, sang the prayer, "Thanks Be To God," by Luckson. In somber mood the chorus sang expressively of the death of Christ in Diack's "All in the April Evening" with Mrs. Bobby Grogan as soloist. Their last number was the joyful hearted "How Lovely are Thy Dwellings" by Liddle. The accompanist for the chorus was Miss Lillian Wavers.

In the third part of the program Mrs. Farrell played the lovely "Prelude at Castle" by Rousseau, and from the St. Lawrence Sketches by Russell the delightfully descriptive "Song of the Basket Weaver." The program closed with the impressive "Festival Toccata" by Fletcher. Its difficult, pedal passages were masterfully done and the artistry of the entire program was outstanding.

Following the program a social hour was held in the recreation room of the educational building. Mrs. E. J. Beale presided at the beautifully appointed tea table and spring arrangements were used at vantage points throughout the room. Music during the social hour

IT'S TORQUE THAT MAKES THE WHEELS GO 'ROUND!

... And the High-Torque Output of Oldsmobile's Famous Rocket Engine Is Instantly Translated into Outstanding Performance at the Rear Wheels!

LET'S TALK TORQUE! In plain language, torque is "twist" — like turning a door knob. It's the force that makes the wheels go 'round. So it follows . . . the more torque your engine has, the more go power your car has . . . the more getaway at the light . . . the more action on the open road!

That's why, when it comes to power, there's nothing like Oldsmobile's Rocket T-350 Engine — because the Rocket is torque TNT! Figures prove it: 350 pound-feet at 2800 rpm (340 pound-feet at 2400 rpm in "88" models).

OLDS CHASSIS IS ENGINEERED TO HANDLE HIGHER TORQUE!

Oldsmobile has the chassis to take Rocket torque . . . a skillfully engineered Oldsmobile chassis with an extra-sturdy, dynamically balanced drive shaft, and an extra-rigid frame that resists twisting and weaving.

What's more, the Rocket's got horsepower

— to spare! And with Oldsmobile, it's high, usable horsepower . . . a by-product of engine design aimed straight at the wheels — design that translates horsepower into terrific torque at normal engine rpm's.

TOP TORQUE MEANS TIP-TOP PERFORMANCE!

The result is higher torque — silken, responsive Rocket action. Touch the accelerator, ever so gently, you "go" . . . and we do mean "GO!" You thrill to smoother, swifter bursts of power in medium speed ranges — tip-top performance for everyday use — spectacular performance when you need it . . . when you want it.

Any way you look at it, you can't top the Rocket for thrills for the money — or for top return when it's time to trade. Stop by soon. Rocket 'round the block . . . or around the town if you like!

OLDSMOBILE'S ROCKET — a double winner in 1956 Mobilgas Economy Run. Get the feel of top horsepower, top torque in the engine that's an economy champion, too!

OBITUARY

On Wednesday, April 11, 1956,
 the death Angel entered quietly into the New Grace Hospital in Highland Park, Michigan, and claimed for its victim the life of Cecil Boyd. Thus ending the agony and suffering of that dreadful disease, cancer.

He was born June 16, 1915 to Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Boyd of Calloway County. His father preceded him in death some 27 years ago.

On October 16, 1937 he was married to Elizabeth Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hughes. They were blessed with one daughter, Suzanne. There was a happy and devoted family.

Besides his wife, daughter and mother, he is survived by one brother, Leon Boyd of Murray, Ky., four sisters, Mrs. Aubrey
 Pitts, of Murray, Ky., Mrs. Iva
 Dunn, Mrs. Uva Dunn, and Mrs.
 Tracie Elkins of Highland Park,
 Michigan. One half brother, Henry
 Boyd, and one half sister, Mrs.
 Preston Boyd, both of Murray.
 Several nieces and nephews and a host of friends to mourn his passing.

It was indeed sad for the friends and loved ones who stood by him with willing hands and anxious hearts, hoping for his recovery, but God in his infinite and tender love thought it best to take him home.

The passing of Cecil has added joy and beauty to Heaven. He is through with all the hardships, toils and heartaches of this restless world. He is not dead, just asleep in the arms of Jesus. Where that was broken here may again be complete.

He lived a Christian life, having been a member of the Poplar Springs Baptist Church since early in life.

No man ever had a finer or richer personality than Cecil. He was always jolly and full of life, facing each day with a smile, making friends of all who knew him.

Words of tongue or pen cannot express the heartache caused by his passing.

A funeral was held in Detroit, attended by a large number of friends. Then his body was brought back to Murray, where another funeral service was held for him in the Methodist Church, conducted by Bro. Lloyd Wilson and Bro. Paul Lyles. He was laid to rest in the City Cemetery.

The flowers were in abundance and came from friends and relatives far and near and were also expressions of highest esteem.
 They feel and know their loss, and the vacancy caused by his passing.
 He was a devoted companion, a kind father, a loving son and a brother and will be missed by all.
 Sleep on dear brother and take thy rest. We loved you dearly, but God Loved you best.

A Loving Sister

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation for the kindness and sympathy shown to us during the sickness and death of our loved one Cecil Boyd. Especially do we thank friends and neighbors for food and floral offerings. Bro.
 Wilson and Bro. Lyles for words of consolation. Mr. Harry Hampshire and Mrs. R. W. Farrell for the beautiful songs and to Max
 H. Churchill Funeral Home. May
 God's richest blessings rest on each of you.

- SPORT PARADE -

By OSCAR FRALEY
 United Press Sports Writer
 NEW YORK — Fearless
 Fraley's facts and figures:

Behind the five-hitter which comebacking Bobby Shantz spun against the Detroit Tigers was an ultimatum from Kansas City Manager Lou Boudreau.

"You've got to find out whether you're a pitcher or whether you aren't," Boudreau told Shantz this spring after the little guy, most valuable player of 1952, had won only six games in the last two years because of a sore arm.
 "You'll just have to cut loose and see whether the arm will take it or not."

Boudreau, and other baseball men, contend that this fear of "cutting loose" and ruining their reasons why sore-armed pitchers have such a tough time coming back — the ultimatum may bring Shantz right back to the top.

Youngsters Too Green
 Take it from Jimmy Demaret, the "old guard" will be back in full command when the golfing contingent returns north. The youngsters, he says, don't have a full command of all the necessary shots.

"All they can do is chip and putt," Demaret scoffed. "Ben Hogan and Sam Snead, if they were playing regularly, could win 90 per cent of the tournaments."

But Jimmy Thomson, the longest hitter in golf history, advises "Keep your eye on Don January and Don Fairfield." The latter could double as Abe Lincoln as a young man while Thomson says of the former: "Watch January in July."

Navy has brought back its 1952
 Olympic rowing champions, now dubbed the "Admirals," for a shot at the 1956 Melbourne games but the graduated sailors may find more than they can handle in Penn's junior varsity.

WRONG FIXER
 SAN FRANCISCO — Robert
 O. Hatt, 65, a race track tout, touted himself into jail Friday.
 Hatt, just in town, phoned a supposed "fixer" at Tanforan race track to let the town know he was available for work. Hatt's tip that Charley Laird was a fixer was a bad one, however, and Hatt landed in jail. Laird is a policeman.

have knocked a fine Penn varsity team out of business with a boat which includes six sophomores.
 The bi tipoff on the Penn youngsters comes today in the Childs Cup Regatta on the Harlem.

Eddie Arcaro recalls the time when, after losing on a favorite, an irate better shouted: "I'll never bet on you again."
 "So go bet on Ted Atkinson," Arcaro snapped back.

Atkinson won the next race. At which point the miffed better rushed up to Arcaro and beamed.
 "Gee, Eddie, thanks for the tip," Arcaro himself doesn't bet, aside from a few "mental bets."
 "So now all he's losing," hekkled
 a bystander, "is his mind!"

"Bruce have known me. I may have been the obvious cause of this now, but if there hadn't been a strong antagonism between you two that had its roots in the past, it wouldn't have happened."

"I can see you're on his side.
 He's captured your fancy in the same way he did Eileen's."

"But he didn't knock you down."
 "No. Suddenly he grinned. "Do you know, it gave me quite a kick to think I could knock him flat.
 He's so much better than I am.
 I suppose I shouldn't have been able to do it if I hadn't been so damned mad."

"You make me say things which surprise myself. He moved closer to her. "What are you doing to me, Val?"

"I don't know I was doing anything to you," she said, but her voice was uncertain.

"Oh yes, you are." He added with a short laugh. "And I'm darned if I know whether I like it or not."

Bruce Harridan stepped out of the officers' quarters. He saw Dirk and Val standing close together by the railing and he noticed Dirk's hand clasp her bare arm in what seemed to him a possessive way.
 He strode over to where they were standing, put his hand roughly on Dirk's shoulder and drew him around to face him.

"I just want to give you fair warning, Hanson," he said thickly.
 "Last night I let you knock me down and get away with it. I had the reputation of this ship, her Captain and her officers to think of, but I hadn't then, and I haven't now, any intention of letting you get away with it for long."

Dirk pulled himself away from Bruce's grasping hand. "I thought I apologized, Harridan," he said quickly.

"But it wasn't a genuine apology.
 It was a farce of an apology," Bruce said harshly. "You knew it and I knew it. And I accepted it in the spirit it was offered."

"Then I withdraw the apology," Dirk said steadily.

"Good," Bruce nodded. "We'll settle the matter once we get on shore then."

Dirk shrugged slightly. "As you wish."

"I do wish," Bruce said roughly.
 "It's a definite date."
